

2019 FACULTY SUMMER SEMINAR

CO-SPONSORED BY THE CENTER FOR VOCATION AND SERVANT LEADERSHIP
WITH SUPPORT OF THE TOTH/LONERGAN ENDOWED CHAIR IN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

MAY 28, 29, 30 (TUESDAY-THURSDAY) • 9:30 AM-12:30 PM

CHANCELLOR'S SUITE, UNIVERSITY CENTER

ABOUT THE FACILITATOR

Patrick Byrne is former Chair and Professor of Philosophy at Boston College. He recently published The Ethics of Discernment: Lonergan's Foundations for Ethics (University of Toronto Press: 2018). His teaching and research interests include the relationships between ethics, science, evolution, religion, service learning, and social justice, and the thought of Bernard Lonergan, Aristotle, and Albert Einstein.

ETHICS & OUR DISCIPLINES

University disciplines and professional codes of ethics can feel so abstract. Is there some good that we are trying to achieve together, perhaps without realizing it? How do we bring our human hearts and intelligences into those codes to give them life? The theme of this workshop will be an approach to ethics that places practices of "discernment" at its center. Each participant will be encouraged to see how discernment can enrich their own specialized work, and facilitate cooperative ventures with others.

Since 1998, the Center for Catholic Studies has provided the opportunity for faculty to reflect in depth on topics central to the Catholic intellectual tradition. This seminar is open to all administrators and faculty. Faculty participants who write a short response-essay by July 1st, will receive a stipend of $300. These essays will be collected and made available online at <http://scholarship.shu.edu/catholic-studies/>.

APPLY BY INDICATING YOUR INTEREST TO FRANCIA PETERSON AT FRANCIA.PETERSON@SHU.EDU BY MAY 13, 2019

ABOUT THE CENTER FOR VOCATION AND SERVANT LEADERSHIP

The Center for Vocation and Servant Leadership promotes openness to God's call in both the academic life and common life of Seton Hall University to support the overall mission of forming students as servant leaders for today's world. The Center began in 2003 supported by a generous grant from Lilly Endowment to further their goal of preparing the next generation of Church leadership. The Center for Vocation and Servant Leadership does its work in cooperation with other campus organizations and by sponsoring several different programs including faculty development, scholarships, and retreats for faculty and administrators. The mission of Seton Hall University reflects a faith in God who knows us individually and has a personal plan for our life. The call to our vocation is not a demand but an invitation to join God in something meant for our doing. A generous response to our vocation – like the choice at a fork in the road – can make all the difference. For more information visit: <https://www.shu.edu/vocation-servant-leadership/>

ABOUT THE CENTER FOR CATHOLIC STUDIES

Founded at Seton Hall University in 1997, The Center for Catholic Studies is dedicated to fostering a dialogue between the Catholic intellectual tradition and all areas of study and contemporary culture, through scholarly research and publications and ongoing programs for faculty, students, and the general public. In 2001, the Center conducted the annual faculty summer seminar, "The Core of the Core," which originated the present University Core Curriculum. The Center also developed the undergraduate degree Program in Catholic Studies with its major, minor and certificate (www.shu.edu/go/dcs). The Center continues to support the Program's students with scholarship aid, as well as ongoing co-curricular activities. Focusing on the central role of the faculty, the Center is the sponsor of regular Faculty Development programs, including lectures, seminars and retreats. The Center also administers two national faculty development programs: Collegium: A Colloquy on Faith and Intellectual Life, and The Lilly Fellows Program.

The Center maintains a global focus in international scholarship and is the home of the G.K. Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture, as well as the Bernard J. Lonergan Institute. The Institutes offer opportunities for study and research, as well as ongoing programs related to faith and culture. In addition, the Micah Institute for Business and Economics concentrates on communicating Catholic Social Teaching and ethics to business education at Seton Hall and the wider business community. The Center also publishes the prestigious Chesterton Review and The Lonergan Review. For more information, visit www.shu.edu/go/ccs.
