As an assessment method, we may share some proposals anonymously with a colleague outside Seton Hall after this year's award evaluation cycle. Note that inclusion of your proposal is optional, and you may decline to be included in this follow-up with no effect on the evaluation of your project. Please indicate if you would be willing for your proposal to be included (anonymously) in this assessment:

I assent to my proposal being included in this project. I understand that this will be for assessment purposes and will not change the evaluation of my proposal.

I would rather that my proposal not be included in this project.

Applications must be received in the Office of Grants and Research Services by Wednesday, February 16, 2022, at 4:45 PM, via the following email address: grantsoffice@shu.edu. No proposals will be accepted after the closing date. Failure to include any of the information requested in the URC Guidelines may result in the rejection of the proposal without review.
